

Look what we have been learning about in Reception!

We have settled into our new classroom and have been learning all about our school routines. We have been finding out about each other and have made lots of new friends.

In maths we have been developing our understanding of grouping, sorting and size.

In literacy we have been learning about the Gingerbread Man and we are also learning how to read using phonics.

