The Centurion's Servant (A modern Version)

It is Orlah's birthday and every-one is here apart from one person. Her gran lives far away and she doesn't get to visit much so Orlah called her Gran to see if she could come over for her birthday. Her best friend, Ellie-Mai, came over for Orlah's party as well and Ellie-Mai asked "Is your gran here yet?" "Not yet, but she is ~~is~~ coming!" "Oh, Okay." They went ~~out~~ into the garden to play on a bouncy castle that Orlah's mum and dad had rented out. Later, some-one knocked at the door! "Is it your gran?" asked Ellie-Mai. They went to check. "No, but she will be here soon!" Orlah replied. They went to have some cake and pizza with their favourite drink. Once they had finished another person knocked at the door so Orlah and Ellie-Mai went to check who it was. But, it was only Orlah's Auntie. The two girls went to open all of the presents. No body had knocked on the door for a very long time. Orlah went up to her bed room to play. Suddenly, there was a loud knock on the door. Orlah and Ellie-Mai's faces both lit up. They ran down ~~stairs~~ the stairs. Guess who

Year 4 explored the key teaching and practices and day to day lives of various religions, including Christianity. Children held many class discussions and created role play in class of different bible stories including the Centurion's Servant, of which they created their own, modern day version of.

Kingdom of God

Dear friend,
I have heard that you have become a Christian. If you read ~~the parable of the~~ ~~sovereign~~ The Parable of The Sower it will help you. Be like that one seed that fell on the path of soil and sallow ~~to~~ ~~grow~~ ~~and~~ help those plants to grow. Being a good friend is going ~~to~~ ~~to~~ help the Kingdom of God. God's Kingdom is important so we need to look after it. If you see someone upset go over it would help the Kingdom to grow and to be proud.

was there? GRAN!!! They both ran to her. Ellie-Mai said, "How did you know Gran was coming?" "She promised and she always keeps her promises!" Orlah replied.
